

9-42 THE BROADWAY: 1st - 5th MAY FACEBOOK POSTS

POST 1 - 4th May

FACT: The developers talk about the Carphone Warehouse building as though it was destroyed by the 2001 Real IRA car bomb. It wasn't.

Could they be trying to undermine its architectural value in order to achieve what the car bomb couldn't?

If you value Ealing's architectural heritage and would like to see it preserved, join us at the public inquiry starting next Tuesday, May 9th at 10.00 am in the Liz Cantell Room, Ealing Town Hall. For more information visit www.saveealingscentre.com.

POST 2 - 5th May

'... there is little in the design that relates to the local distinctiveness of Ealing as it stands.' These were the Planning Inspector's words about the 2009 scheme for 9-42 The Broadway. But they could just as easily apply to the latest one by architects Allies and Morrison.

If you like the unique character of Ealing, join us at the public inquiry starting next Tuesday, May 9th at 10.00 am in the Liz Cantell Room, Ealing Town Hall. For more information visit www.saveealingscentre.com.

